 - Dan Strecker, Marietta
- Megan Rich, Civitan International Research Center Scientist, gave an outstanding presentation on her research in finding ways to move drugs across the blood/brain barrier into the brain and control the location and timing of dosages.

- Junior Civitan Governor - Iman Shere spoke about the accomplishments and growth of the Junior Clubs in our district. She also reported the need for her to raise funding for Sno-Do before December 20. She needs to raise AT LEAST $1,800 by that time to participate in the event and in the important Governor's update. You may donate on-line through the Civitan International Web Site, but be sure to indicate that it is for Iman Shere.
 - Jeanne Jarrett, Junior Civitan Co-Chair, requested that donations to SOD (Support Our Delegation) be made out to "Cardinal District Junior Civitans" and sent to Jeanne Jarrett, 104 Woodshire Place, Charleston, WV 25314
- Carol Wolters reminded everyone to obtain and submit applications for one or more $1,000 scholarships to be awarded under the new Cardinal District Scholarship Fund. Applications are due to her by January 31, 2018. Applications must be prepared and reviewed by the club supporting the application. Carol also honored the following persons who were "Fellowship contributors" to the West Virginia Scholarship Fund and remain as members of the Cardinal District:
 - Luster Doughty, Charleston
 - Brantley Withrow, Charleston
 - W. Frank Mansell, Jr., Charleston
 - Jerry Wagner, Vienna
 - Patty Frame, Charleston
 - Julia Noland, Charleston (Assoc.)
 - Nancy Trotter, Charleston (Assoc.)
 - David Ankrom, Vienna
 - Michael Flanagan, Vienna
 - Thomas J. Stevens, Charleston
- Carol was surprised by an announcement by John Wolters that the first $300 fellowship funded under the new Cardinal District Civitan Scholarship program would be contributed by him in her name.
- Brenda Lantz presented a Civitan Theme Contest that was preceded and followed by stirring musical presentations with group participation.
 - The opening number of "76 Trombones" from "The Music Man" was accompanied by the Cardinal District Leadership with trombone signs and the Governor with a baton. Many attendees participated in the march around the room. (There was little rhythm, but no injuries.)
 - The Civitan Theme Contest involved four teams trying to be first to identify the missing words in their assigned Civitan International themes from the past 40 years. (Congratulations to "Team 2").
 - The Contest was followed by the Cardinal District Leadership holding balloons and performing a vocal presentation of "Before the Parade Passes By" from "Hello Dolly". Brenda composed a special Civitan set of lyrics for one verse, and Carol Wolters helped instruct, lead, and direct the "choir". (Lots of good spirited effort.)
 - Great to have Brenda back in "production mode".
- Tony Massoud's presentation on the content of the Cardinal District Web Site (Civitancardinaldistrict.org) led to a spirited discussion of the Cardinal District Directory and internet security. This led to a commitment by Governor John to schedule a public meeting of the Cardinal District Board in early December to discuss and decide on a satisfactory resolution of the privacy concerns.

- Doug Baxter and Sandy Stout gave a presentation on "Growth & Development" that included a summary power point presentation of potential programs, service projects, and fund raisers that could be used by our clubs with their own changes.
- The District Meeting ended shortly after 3:00pm.
